

Learning English across the Curriculum, Grades K-8

With Daniel Brassell, Ph.D.

Schedule	February 16, 2010 Location: CESA 7, Room C Check in begins: 8:00 A.M. Workshop: 8:30 A.M. to 3:30 P.M.
Audience	Classroom teachers, Grades K-8
Presenter	Daniel Brassell, Ph. D. has dedicated his life to improving the education of inner-city students. His goal is to offer strategies aimed at improving reading attitudes and aptitudes. Using humor, music, and games, Dr. Brassell has motivated teachers to create reading programs that encourage lifelong learning. An avid writer who has published dozens of articles in newspapers, Journals, and magazines, he is the author of the book, Readers for Life: The Ultimate Reading Fitness Guide , and founder of www.lazyreaders.com .
Description	Don't let your English Language Learners (ELLs) fall behind their English-speaking peers. Learn how to integrate English across the curriculum to accelerate language acquisition and development. And, learn concrete instructional techniques that reinforce students' different learning styles. In this workshop, Dr. Brassell will demonstrate how to modify your lessons and adapt mainstream materials to use with your ELLs.
